Mr. Raczak School Board President-

Talked about the process of finding a new Superintendent for the district. There was an initial interview process with a team. Then he was asked 23 in depth questions. One question was How do you perceive your first 100 days? Then they weaned down to two candidates. Then met in small groups at central office with a few principals and union. The names of candidates are kept quiet due to confidentiality. He was selected because of background and came from large school district. The decision was hard, but clear.

Mrs. Couch-

Carl Azzus CNN anchor coming Jan.24

One book one school will be 5 picture books themed kindness and there will be activities.

8th grade honors breakfast will not continue, due to only leaving out a small portion of student body.
